

Checklist – Doctoral Programs in the College of Environmental and Global Health

To apply for admission to the University of Florida PhD Program in One Health or Environmental and Global Health, applicants MUST complete the 3 steps below.

1. Submit the University of Florida online Application for Graduate Admission. The application can be found at:

<http://www.admissions.ufl.edu/start.html>

_____ Complete the University of Florida Application for Graduate Admissions online and pay the non-refundable application fee. You may pay online by credit card or send the application fee and other required materials to the Office of Graduate Admissions (the address is listed below). Please note that the application fee is required from all students applying to a graduate program including current and former University of Florida students.

_____ When completing the application:

Under College/School, select Public Health and Health Professions (PHHP)

Under Program/Major, select PhD in One Health or Environmental and Global Health

_____ Arrange to have official GRE test scores sent directly to University of Florida. The University of Florida code is 5812. Please allow 6-8 weeks for the official scores to arrive.

Verbal _____%_____; Quantitative _____%_____; Analytical Writing _____%_____; TOTAL _____

_____ Arrange to have official transcripts from each previous institution attended (other than University of Florida) sent to:

Office of Graduate Admissions

University of Florida

201 Criser Hall

P.O. Box 114000

Gainesville, FL 32602 (352) 392-1365

_____ Arrange to have official TOEFL, IELTS or MELAB scores sent to the Office of Graduate Admissions (International students only).

_____ Arrange to have 3 Letters of Recommendation submitted directly from your recommenders to the department. You may either have them submitted to the Graduate School along with your application, or have them emailed to egh-program@phhp.ufl.edu

Please have your recommendations submitted on letterhead, as well as requesting completion of the form located at: <http://graduateschool.ufl.edu/files/recommendation.pdf> _____

_____ Submit your professional Statement of Purpose outlining objectives that match the philosophy and focus of the program. Please include the following in your statement of Purpose:

- 1) Your background, experience, and any other inspirations that make our programs of interest to you.
- 2) Since an advisor match is part of the admission process, please provide your thoughts on which faculty member(s) might best support your program, if admitted.
- 3) How a degree in Environmental and Global Health will support your career goals and aspirations.

_____ Submit Curriculum Vitae (CV).

2. Also submit a copy of your UF application to the Department of Environmental and Global Health, including all of the above listed items. Applications from prospective candidates are reviewed on a rolling basis for fall. The Department will accept unofficial copies of your transcripts and test scores in order to begin reviewing your application at the earliest possible time. However, all official documents will have to be received by the Graduate Office of Admissions prior to an offer of admission from our program.

Send your application and all attachments by mail to:

- a. PhD Program
Department of Environmental and Global Health
University of Florida
1225 Center Dr., Rm. 4160

Or by email to:

- b. egh-programs@phhp.ufl.edu

3. Send an email to egh-programs@phhp.ufl.edu to notify the program that you are applying and determine what, if any, documents may be required. Please specify your concentration.